Do Not Let Your Heart be Troubled Matthew 2 Pastor Rob Winslow- January 15, 2023

Big Idea

| Do        | let your                 | be                      | , Jesus has               |         |
|-----------|--------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------------|---------|
|           | this                     | •                       |                           |         |
|           |                          |                         |                           |         |
|           |                          |                         |                           |         |
|           |                          |                         |                           |         |
|           |                          |                         |                           |         |
|           | are being                | to                      | •                         |         |
| Matthew 2 | 2:1-6; John 6:35; 2 Samı | uel 7:16; Micah 5:2 & 4 | l; Mark 15:13-14; Matthew | 7:22-23 |

You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently. Oh that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes!

| We can                                | Jesus.   |
|---------------------------------------|----------|
| Matthew 2:7-12; Isaiah 60:1-3 & 5-6   |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
| Keep                                  | and keep |
| Matthew 2:13-18; Hosea 11:1; Jeremiah | 31:15    |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |
|                                       |          |

Know ____ is with ____.

Matthew 2:19-23; Isaiah 7:14